Apple® Edition

Fishies is the software that turns your computer into a life-like aquarium filled with aquatic creatures. Just load the program, sit back, and relax as your Fishies go about their fishy business. You'll see swordtails, angelfish, goldfish, seahorses, tiger barbs, and diamondfish swimming past your screen among underwater ferns and rocks.

You can interact with your Fishies: feed them; tap on the glass. For more excitement, press the space bar to initiate some special underwater events. Get ready—you might just see a mermaid!

The days when you quivered with fear that another visiting friend would ask you, "What does your computer do?" and you would have to show them a boring—not to mention embarrassing—spreadsheet, are over. Now impress and delight everyone you know when you fill the blank eye of your monitor with the dazzling display of Fishies.

Fishies is economical. Hours of watery fun running Fishies on your computer will use only the amount of electrical power needed to run a desk lamp for the same amount of time.

You'll see: with Fishies, the fun never ends.
